Mr Hickey — Spr. On Feb 19th and 20th the Secretary worked in Springfield on the opening of the Springfield Branch Office. The logical place for rooms seems to be in the vicinity of the State Free Employment Office, which lies half way between the Italian quarter and that occupied by the Poles, Jews, etc.

This, also is directly opposite the rooms of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce through whose co-operation much will have to be done.

An Advisory Committee of five is to be appointed and the following names were suggested:

(1) Henry Lasker — a former Pres. of Board of Aldermen
(2) A Jewish Attorney — rec by Dr Tupper
(3) Judge Keddy — of the local Municipal Court
(4) Judge Foss — Secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce
(5) Ex-Mayor Hayes, — highly rec by Judge Carroll
(6) Bernard Smyth and A. H. Gilbert of the Chapman Valve Co — a manufacturer highly interested in the work of this type.

In addition, information was gathered concerning Henry Pearson, of the Mason Mfg. Co. *

She would put into effect a program formulated by the Y.W.C.A. and adapted to Massachusetts

The only stipulation is that if at the end of the year the State

His office was above one now occupied by Bureau but in addition to this office he had branch offices in immigrant centers in Springfield y adjoining towns. He felt that lectures in lang of immigrant - illustrated by slides were a means of advertising. Felt that volunteer racial speakers would be available. In his experience slides y outlines on such subjects as "Columbus" "Geo Washington" "Lincoln" etc were furnished from central office and volunteer speakers secured by him. While speakers were often available from Inter. College he endeavored to use other speakers also since this institution was looked upon with suspicion in some quarters.
